A MESSAGE FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners of Guardian Angel Cathedral,

I wanted to take a moment to let you know that I will be retiring at the end of June this year. I have enjoyed my time in every one of my assignments, including my time here at Guardian Angel Cathedral. But I also know it's time to step back and transition to retirement. I will be relocating to an apartment in St. George, Utah, still close enough to help parishes when priests need to be on vacation, but in a smaller town with some of the best walking trails in our region.

Thanks for your support through these years here, especially thanks to our small but dedicated staff and our very dedicated volunteers who keep weekends welcoming and vibrant for our visitors from across the valley and around the world. On the weekend of June 8th, there will be a reception after the 2:30, 9 and 11 AM Masses. Watch the bulletin for more details.

Till then, my thanks and promise of continued prayers. When the Archdiocese announces my successor, we will let you know.

Fr. Bob Stoeckig, Rector

SECOND COLLECTION

There will be a second collection immediately following the first collection. This week's second collection will help us reach our 2024 Catholic Stewardship Appeal goal. This campaign funds the recruitment and education of priests right here in Las Vegas. It also provides pastoral outreach to the sick, poor, and vulnerable living right in our community. The campaign also funds religious education programs for both children and adults. We thank you for your generosity.

HISTORY OF THE CATHEDRAL

Guardian Angel Cathedral is the oldest standing public structure along the iconic Las Vegas Strip. It is unique not only for its magnificent windows, mosaics, mural, and architectural design but also for its origin and history. The beginnings go back to 1958 when the Clerics of St. Viator began the celebration of a 4:30 AM Sunday Mass at various hotels on the Strip to accommodate hotel/casino workers and visitors. The present church became a reality in 1963 as the "Guardian Angel Shrine."

When the Diocese of Reno became the Diocese of Reno-Las Vegas in 1977, the Shrine was designated as the Co-Cathedral of the Catholic Church in Nevada. In 1995 the Diocese of Las Vegas was established with Guardian Angel Cathedral as the Cathedral of the Diocese of Las Vegas. In May 2023, it was elevated to the Metropolitan Cathedral for the new Ecclesiastical Province.

In 1988, Guardian Angel Cathedral received an Indult, a special permission, from Rome for the 2:30 PM Saturday Mass to be recognized as a vigil Mass. Since ninety percent of the participants in our Eucharistic celebrations are visitors from all over the world, this Mass is a great help in caring for those who wish to fulfill their Sunday obligation.
